licence is liable to be cancelled. The Cinema houses are free to get approved films from any source. Films Division is, however, providing a service to the Cinema houses by offering approved films for exhibition. For this service Films Division is charging a fee of 1 per cent of the net collection at the box office, excluding entertainment tax and Surcharge on entertainment tax. The expenditure incurred by the Government on production, distribution and supply of the approved films is considerably more than the total revenue from the fees charges from Cinema houses. This activity is, therefore subsidised.
